

Census of Restricted Regime Prisoners January 2017

The result of the January 2017 survey shows that the number of prisoners on restricted regimes has increased by 4 in the overall figure compared to October 2016. Figures show that there has been an increase from 424 (October 2016) to 428 (January 2017), an increase of 0.9%.

The figure for those on a restricted regime for protection reasons (Rule 63) was 397, (of which 389 were there at their own request).

The number of prisoners on 22 and 23 hour restricted regime was 72 (23hr – 7, 22hr - 65) which represents an increase of 41 (132%) on October 2016.

Since the commencement of the survey in July 2013, the number of prisoners on 22/23 hour restricted regime has decreased by 139 or 65% from 211 to 72.

Key Statistics

- Of the 1,030 prisoners classified as protection prisoners only 397 had regime restricted (Rule 63)
- 428 prisoners in total were subject to a restricted regime
- 397 (10.9% of prison population 3,643) prisoners on protection (Rule 63), of which 389 were there of their own request.
- 24 prisoners restricted on grounds of order (Rule 62)
- 0 prisoners were restricted due to discipline (Rule 67, Part 3 Prisons Act 2007).

The restriction of a prisoner's regime can occur due to a number of factors including, the protection of vulnerable prisoners. This is provided for under Rule 63 of the Prison Rules 2007. A prisoner may, either at his/her own request or when the Governor considers it necessary, in so far as is practicable and subject to the maintenance and good order and safe and secure custody, be kept separate from other prisoners who are reasonably likely to cause significant harm to him/her.

The fact that prisoners seeking protection are immediately separated from the general population or from specific prisoners identified as presenting a threat, clearly demonstrates the commitment of the Irish Prison Service to ensure their safety and security. The status of each prisoner on restricted regime within the prison system is regularly reviewed. If possible, prisoners can be transferred to other institutions where a restricted regime would not be necessary.

In addition, the Governor may decide, for the maintenance of good order in the prison, to remove a prisoner from general association or structured activity to reduce the negative effect that a prisoner or prisoners may have on the general population. This is provided for under Rule 62 of the Prison Rules 2007. There may also be a smaller number of prisoners who would be restricted for medical (Rule 64) or discipline reasons (Rule 67).

In July 2013, the Director General of the Irish Prison Service established a high level group to look at measures which can be introduced to reduce the number of prisoners currently held on restricted regimes with a view to ensuring that all receive, as a minimum standard, out of cell time of 3 hours per day, to engage in exercise or activity.
