Seirbhís Phríosúin
na hÉireann
Irish Prison Service

Nathan CARTER

Press Release
Nathan Carter Locked Up Behind Bars
Nathan Carter Live at Castlerea Prison for one night only!

11th July 2024

Today July 11th, the Irish Prison Service confirmed that the famous Irish country music singer, Nathan Carter was committed into the custody of, Governor of Castlerea Prison. Conditions as part of the sentence handed down to the county singer was to perform for "one night only" at an exclusive charity fundraising event at Castlerea Prison.

The church located inside the walls of Castlerea Prison provided a remarkable venue for Nathan Cater to perform but also recognises the significant work prison staff do across Ireland for their local charities.

The one-of-a-kind concert aimed to raise vital funds for three admirable charities.

- Paediatric Ward in Sligo General Hospital
- Roscommon Youth Services
- Mayo Roscommon Hospice

Nathan performed for staff and invited guests from the local and surrounding communities. Those in attendance not only enjoyed an unforgettable musical experience in a prison environment but also contributed to meaningful charities that do so much to support members of our local communities.

The profit raised from this exclusive event will be directed towards the charities. The Paediatric Ward in Sligo General Hospital will benefit from new baby monitors and equipment, while Roscommon Youth Services will use the proceeds to support a bursary program for youths aged 10 to 24. Additionally, Mayo Roscommon Hospice will receive contributions towards the Sensory and Healing Garden in the newly developed Roscommon Hospice.

This exclusive concert is a testament to the collaborative efforts of the Irish Prison Service, Nathan Carter, the hard working staff of Castlerea Prison and other generous attendees who are committed to making a difference in the lives of those not only in the custody of the state, but those in the surrounding community also.

ENDS